

The image shows a blank graphic organizer template. It is enclosed in a thick black border. The layout consists of several distinct sections:

- A large rounded rectangle at the top, occupying approximately the top third of the page.
- A horizontal row of six small, equal-sized squares located directly below the top section.
- A large rounded rectangle on the left side, occupying the middle-left portion of the page.
- A tall vertical rounded rectangle on the right side, occupying the middle-right portion of the page.
- A large rectangle at the bottom left, occupying the bottom-left portion of the page.
- A vertical rounded rectangle at the bottom center, occupying the bottom-center portion of the page.
- A square at the bottom right, occupying the bottom-right portion of the page.
